GUEST SPEAKER: Kathleen Nackley

Kathleen gave her classification speech today. Always good to learn more about our members, both personally and professionally. Kathleen spends some of her winters in Panama. She has a home there and volunteers some of her time with the local ingenious population. Kathleen has 4 children and grew up in Lawrence MA. Currently, she is living in Salem NH and works for Marquis Health Consulting Services. The organization can assist people with: Behavioral Health, Neuro Recovery, Therapy and Short and Long Term Care. During the COVID pandemic, Kathleen worked with the front line worker's and assisted ministers with giving last rites for those seriously inflicted with the virus.
