GUEST SPEAKER

Danvers Rotary welcomed 2 guests from the Commonwealth Orchestra Outreach Project, Lucinda Ellert and Marshaunda Smith. Marshaunda is a cellist and teacher from Danvers. Lucinda is the director of the Project, based in Chelmsford and also a teacher. Marshaunda played a new composition for cello written by a local composer, it was great to hear live music and a different take on classical music. their purpose is to create new interest in music that underserved youth and new audiences will find relatable. They will find and support American composers who can represent who we are through their music accompanied by poetry, stories, sketches and visuals that enhance the entertainment. Their next performance is set for Mother's Day May 10 in Salem, MA. Location to be announced. If you know people interested in helping to grow the organization, they are seeking board members, sponsors and directors. contact: info@commonwealthorchestra.org 617-240-0877
